

local disturbance decoupling with pdf

This paper presents a high-precision control scheme based on active disturbance rejection control (ADRC) to improve the stabilization accuracy of an inertially stabilized platform (ISP) for aerial remote sensing applications. The ADRC controller is designed to suppress the effects of the disturbance on the stabilization accuracy that consists of a tracking differentiator, a nonlinear state ...

Sustainability is the process of maintaining change in a balanced environment, in which the exploitation of resources, the direction of investments, the orientation of technological development and institutional change are all in harmony and enhance both current and future potential to meet human needs and aspirations. For many in the field, sustainability is defined through the following ...

In conventional electrolysers with the classical plate-and-frame equipment (see Fig. 3), the feed channels are created by interposing between the membranes net spacers, maintaining a fixed inter-membrane distance and providing some mixing promotion in the channels. Spacers are provided with gaskets along the perimeter of the channels, which seal the channels and guide the solutions through them.
